Whether you go big and bold, or small and elegant, there is no shortage of options. I have been turning to letters when I need to add something special to a project. I used a simple frame made from scrap bits of 2X2's, covered with sisal twine, some branches and a little time for this card. I am a big fan of using old things for new purposes and love the soft rustic look of this card. We'll be back again for more posts about natural elements next week. I'll leave you with this beautiful work by my talented daughter, Debra. She created the floral stamps for the envelopes – doesn't she look a bit like a flower!Specifications:The Playground Solo small T-bar tee shirt is perfect for those looking for an extremely flattering shirt that has a dual purpose for the boys and the girls.
