See Cockerill v. Wilson, 768 S.W.2d 922, 924 (Ky. 1989). In determining whether the owner is entitled to possession of the property, the court must consider whether the owner's liability for the debt outstanding against the property is extinguished (e.g., by payment of the principal amount or satisfying the lien). Id. 2 (...continued) offense in the course of commission of which the felonious article was taken; for example, where a merchant is alleged to have robbed a customer of a wallet containing $1,000, there is no larceny of the property owned by the merchant if the merchant gives the customer a new wallet for $1,000, or if he or she subsequently learns that the original wallet was stolen. However, if the
